Youth Peer Support Specialist (YPSS)
Kingsville, Falfurrias, Alice, San Diego
Monday-Friday 8-5 Flex
$2472.00 Monthly
Posting: #2042
Closing: Until Filled

Coastal Plains Community Center is committed to providing a Trauma-informed environment for everyone who comes through our doors.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: Youth Peer Support Specialist (YPSS) will engage youth to expand youth driven wraparound services for young people, increase youth engagement, and expand capacity for youth voices across our agency and community. The YPSS serves a unique role on the team. Youth Peer Support Specialists are not clinicians, but work alongside, complement and enhance the work of the clinical team. By drawing on their own lived experience navigating behavioral health systems can inspire hope and model relationships built on respect, trust and validation. By sharing their own lived experience, youth peers help youth to enhance wellness, create strategies for self-empowerment and take concrete steps towards building fulfilling, self-determined lives for themselves. Walking alongside the youth on their journey, the YPSS is an ally and advocate for young people. This mutuality often called “peerness” promotes connection, builds rapport and inspires hope.

Minimum Qualifications: The YPSS should have personal lived experience navigating behavioral health systems.

1. Demonstrate strong interpersonal communications skills and the ability to empathize with, relate to and effectively partner with youth and team members.
2. Demonstrate a strong understanding of boundaries and principles of self-care.
3. Have the willingness to disclose their lived experience, where appropriate, for the purpose of empowerment.
4. Possess a High School diploma or GED
5. Be willing and able to work flexible hours that are convenient for youth and families.
6. Other HR requirements as are needed and appropriate to the position.
7. Age 18 to 30.
8. Ability to maintain current and valid class “C” driver’s license with no more than 10 penalty points.

Preferred Requirements:

1. Ability to establish working relationships with collaterals, and individuals with mental health illness in a community setting.
2. Experience effectively collaborating, partnering and advocating alongside youth.
